Detailed Study Notes

Read these notes carefully — they're based on actual patterns found in your past papers.

1. Depository Participant (DP) role and purpose for opening a Demat account

High Conf.

High Priority

Appeared in: Paper 1 · Paper 2 · Paper 4 · 3× total

Question types: MCQ: 2-3 | Short: 1

Kya Padhna Hai:

- Definition: 'Depository Participant serves as an intermediary' (Paper 1 MCQ wording).
- Purpose: 'For holding and transferring securities in the Demat form' (Paper 2 MCQ wording).
- Opening steps: 'sign broker-client agreement and open Demat account with depository participant' (Paper 4 phrase).
- Distinguish DP from depository companies (DP vs NSDL/CDSL role phrasing seen in MCQ options).

Kaise Poochha Jaata Hai:

Usually asked as MCQ asking 'who serves as intermediary' or 'purpose of opening Demat account' and as short step-sequence evidence in stock market trading procedure questions.

Repeat Pattern:

Similar DP/Demat phrasing appears across Paper 1, Paper 2 and Paper 4 — MCQ format consistent; stock-market procedural questions in Paper 4 reuse Demat-account wording.

Key Terms:

Demat account

Depository Participant

NSDL/CDSL

2. Business environment characteristic: Dynamic nature (frequent plan revisions)

High Conf.

High Priority

Appeared in: Paper 1 · Paper 2 · Paper 4 · 3× total

Question types: MCQ: 2-3 | Short: 1-2 | Case Study: 1

Kya Padhna Hai:

- Definition: 'Dynamic nature' — rapid technological changes/consumer preferences forcing plan revision (Paper 1 wording: Gamma Ltd.).
- Examples: entry of competitors and tech change causing frequent plan revision language (Paper 1 case).
- Distinguish from inter-relatedness, complexity, relativity — recognise keywords 'revise plans frequently' or 'rapid technological improvements'.
- Application: pick dynamic when question mentions 'frequent revision of plans' or 'rapid change'.

Kaise Poochha Jaata Hai:

Mostly MCQ or short-application case (identify which characteristic), sometimes used in longer business-environment scenarios.

Repeat Pattern:

Appears consistently across Papers 1,2,4 in MCQ/case stems describing rapid change prompting plan revisions.

Key Terms:

Dynamic nature

Plan revision

Technological change

3. Consumer rights under Consumer Protection

High Conf.

High Priority

Act — Right to be informed / Right to choose / Right to seek redressal

Appeared in: Paper 1 · Paper 3 · Paper 4 · 3× total

Question types: MCQ: 2-3 | Short: 1-2 | Case Study: 1

Kya Padhna Hai:

- Exact phrasing: 'Right to be informed', 'Right to be assured/Right to choose', 'Right to seek redressal' used in MCQs (Paper 3 & 4 wording).
- Reliefs available: replacement, refund, removal of defect, compensation — listed as reliefs in Aditi case (Paper 1 'State any three reliefs').
- Responsibilities: 'Ask for cash memo' and consumer duties appear in Raghu/Aditi contexts (Paper 1 & 4 evidence).
- Distinguish which right grants freedom to choose varied products at competitive prices vs right to be heard; map wording from MCQs.

Kaise Poochha Jaata Hai:

MCQ asking which right corresponds to a freedom; short 3-mark 'State any three reliefs' and scenario-based short answers require naming specific reliefs or rights.

Repeat Pattern:

Rights and specific reliefs appear in multiple papers (Paper1 case Aditi, Paper3 & Paper4 MCQs), consistent phrasing — high predictability.

Key Terms:

Right to be informed

Right to choose

Redressal

Replacement/refund/compensation

4. Divisional (departmental) organisational structure: advantages and disadvantages

High Conf.

High Priority

Appeared in: Paper 1 · Paper 2 · Paper 4 · 3× total

Question types: MCQ: 2-3 | Short: 1-2 | Case Study: 1

Kya Padhna Hai:

- Identify advantages listed: 'promotes flexibility and initiative', 'autonomous units', 'development of varied skills in divisional head' (Paper 2 MCQ options).
- Disadvantage distractor: 'minimal duplication of effort leading to economies of scale' is not a divisional advantage (Paper1/2 phrasing used to pick incorrect option).
- Recognise when to use divisional vs functional (case stems like Deccan Motors shifting to divisional for commercial vs passenger divisions).
- Application: name 2 benefits and 1 disadvantage when asked (short-answer format used in cases).

Kaise Poochha Jaata Hai:

MCQ asking 'which is/ is not an advantage' and short case questions identifying structure and listing advantages/ disadvantages.

Repeat Pattern:

Divisional-structure concept appears in multiple papers with near-identical option phrasing — high repeatability.

Key Terms:

Divisional structure

Autonomous unit

Flexibility

Duplication of effort

5. Controlling process steps — measurement, comparison, corrective action (identify which step used)

High Conf.

High Priority

Appeared in: Paper 1 · Paper 2 · Paper 4 · 3× total

Question types: MCQ: 2-3 | Short: 2-3 | Case Study: 1-2

Kya Padhna Hai:

- Know sequence: 'Setting standards', 'Measurement of actual performance', 'Comparing actual performance with standards', 'Taking corrective action' (explicit in Paper 1 and Paper 2 scenarios).
- Application: in worker-target short-cases (e.g., 8000 vs 6000 bulbs) identify 'Taking corrective action' when training/hiring occurs (Paper1).
- Recognise measuring step examples like 'benchmark 30,000 units' and actual 27,000 units (Paper2), then manager asks to 'find out and resolve' (used as instruction to list steps).
- Link to corrective actions like revising standards if defect rates can't be reduced (Paper4 revising standards).

Kaise Poochha Jaata Hai:

MCQ asking 'Which step was followed?', short 3-mark 'State the steps' or list actions to resolve shortfall.

Repeat Pattern:

Control-process steps used across papers in identical scenario formats; highly repeatable.

Key Terms:

Setting standards

Measurement

Comparison

Corrective action

6. Identification and division of work / Departmentalisation / Assignment of duties (organising steps match)

High Conf.

High Priority

Appeared in: Paper 1 · Paper 2 · Paper 4 · 3× total

Question types: MCQ: 2-3 | Short: 1-2 | Case Study: 1

Kya Padhna Hai:

- Definitions and match-ups: 'Departmentalisation = grouping similar activities', 'Establishing authority: who takes orders from whom', 'Assignment of duties = allocate work according to skills' (seen in Paper1 & Paper2 matching columns).
- Recognise sequence: Identification/division !' Departmentalisation !' Establish reporting !' Assignment.
- Practice matching Column I-II style examples; exact phrasing used in papers should be memorised.
- Recognise examples in school-student event organising (Paper2 farewell example) mapping to 'division of work'.

Kaise Poochha Jaata Hai:

Matching type MCQ or short application: 'Match Column I with Column II' or 'Identify which organising step performed'.

Repeat Pattern:

Matching and sequence-based organising questions appear across Paper1, Paper2 and Paper4 consistently.

Key Terms:

Identification of work

Departmentalisation

Authority & reporting

Assignment of duties

7. SEBI functions — regulatory & protective vs promotional (which is protective?)

High Conf.

High Priority

Appeared in: Paper 1 · Paper 2 · Paper 4 · 3× total

Question types: MCQ: 2-3 | Short: 1-2

Kya Padhna Hai:

- Protective functions examples: 'prohibition of fraudulent and unfair trade practices', 'controlling insider trading', 'penalties' (Paper1 & Paper2 wording).
- Regulatory functions: 'Registration of brokers/sub-brokers', 'promotion of fair practices', 'conduct research and publish useful info' — know which are regulatory vs protective (Paper4/2 MCQs).
- Be prepared to pick which listed function is NOT protective (Paper1 scenario asked 'Which function mentioned by Rama is not a protective function?').
- Remember exact phrase 'promotion of fair practices and code of conduct' appears as an option — classify as regulatory/promotional.

Kaise Poochha Jaata Hai:

MCQ selecting which of the listed SEBI functions is protective/regulatory or not; short explanation questions possible.

Repeat Pattern:

SEBI functions used across papers with consistent option phrasing — high confidence in repeats.

Key Terms:

SEBI

Regulatory functions

Protective functions

Insider trading

8. Sources of recruitment — internal (transfer/promotion) vs external (employee recommendation, agencies, notice board, unsolicited applications)

High Conf.

High Priority

Appeared in: Paper 1 · Paper 2 · Paper 4 · 3× total

Question types: MCQ: 1-2 | Short: 2-3 | Case Study: 2

Kya Padhna Hai:

- Know specific external sources used in cases: 'private agencies & professional bodies' for specialized roles, 'notice board' for casual unskilled jobs, 'unsolicited applications' as a pool (Paper1 Staple Foods case and Paper2 Staple Foods rewriting).
- Internal sources: 'Transfers' and 'Promotions' definitions and which vacancies they suit (Paper4 phrasing).
- Employee recommendation phrasing: 'recommendation of employees' used in Paper2 software firm example.
- Be ready to list sources used for various organisational levels as in 4-mark short answers.

Kaise Poochha Jaata Hai:

3-4 mark case-based questions: 'Identify the external sources used by X for recruitment at various levels' or MCQ selecting the source.

Repeat Pattern:

Recruitment-source scenarios appear in Papers 1,2 and 4 with similar concrete lists — high repeatability.

Key Terms:

Transfers

Promotions

Employee recommendation

Private agencies

Notice board

9. Staffing function importance and staffing steps (recruitment vs selection distinctions)

High Conf.

High Priority

Appeared in: Paper 1 · Paper 2 · Paper 3 · 3× total

Question types: MCQ: 1-2 | Short: 2-3 | Long: 1 | Case Study: 2

Kya Padhna Hai:

- Importance points asked: 'accomplish organisational goals', 'efficient use of resources', 'career planning/promotions' — see Paper1 & Paper2 wording.
- Staffing steps: recruitment, selection, placement & orientation, performance appraisal — exact step names used in matching questions (Paper2/3).
- Distinguish recruitment sources (covered earlier) from selection steps (tests, interview, final appointment) as separate study bullets.
- Examples: Staple Foods / Ratan Ltd. recruitment & selection cases — memorise phrases used for short-answer mapping.

Kaise Poochha Jaata Hai:

3-4 mark explain importance or 6-mark explain staffing/selection steps; MCQs on which is a staffing advantage or which step is performance appraisal.

Repeat Pattern:

Staffing importance and process items appear in all 3+ papers with near-identical phrasing; high repeat value.

Key Terms:

Recruitment

Selection

Placement

Performance appraisal

10. Principles of Management — Discipline, Unity of Direction, Equity (identify & explain)

High Conf.

High Priority

Appeared in: Paper 1 · Paper 3 · Paper 4 · 3× total

Question types: MCQ: 1 | Short: 1-2 | Long: 1-2 | Case Study: 1

Kya Padhna Hai:

- Be able to define 'Discipline' as adherence to organisational rules (Paper4 exact phrasing), 'Unity of Direction' meaning one plan for a group of activities, 'Equity' meaning fairness in treatment.
- Provide points of significance or importance (papers ask 'explain principles' and 'state significance of principles').
- Use quoted lines from case to support answers: identify which principle violated in management scenarios (Paper3/4 case studies).
- Practice 6-mark structured answers with definitions and 3 supporting points each as per papers' marking expectations.

Kaise Poochha Jaata Hai:

6-mark direct theory OR 'apply and quote lines from case' style where asked to identify principle and list importance.

Repeat Pattern:

Fayol principles recurred across papers, often in identical 'explain' question format — high repeatability.

Key Terms:

Discipline

Unity of direction

Equity

Fayol

11. Planning features and limitations — rigidity, dynamic environment, planning is mental exercise

High Conf.

High Priority

Appeared in: Paper 2 · Paper 3 · Paper 4 · 3× total

Question types: MCQ: 2-3 | Short: 1-2 | Long: 1 | Case Study: 2

Kya Padhna Hai:

- Functional structure features: 'specialisation by functions, training easier, managerial efficiency, but coordination problems' (Paper4 MCQ options).
- Divisional structure features: 'autonomous units, faster decision-making, flexibility' and possible duplication/higher cost.
- Be ready to identify which structure is being used in a case (Nurata Ltd. divisional setup in Paper4) and list two advantages and one disadvantage.
- Prepare to contrast functional vs divisional on specific bases like 'focus, coordination, duplication' as seen in MCQs.

Kaise Poochha Jaata Hai:

MCQ 'Which is not an advantage of divisional structure' or 4-mark 'identify structure and state advantages/one disadvantage' case.

Repeat Pattern:

Functional vs Divisional comparisons occur across multiple papers with recurring distractor phrasing.

Key Terms:

Functional structure

Divisional structure

Coordination

Duplication

14. Packaging levels — Primary vs Secondary packaging (identify level of pack)

Medium Conf.

Medium Priority

Appeared in: Paper 1 · Paper 3 · 2× total

Question types: MCQ: 2

Kya Padhna Hai:

- Definition: 'Primary packaging' is the pack touching the product (paper asked which level the glass bottle represents) (Paper 1 phrase).
- Examples: decorative box vs glass bottle distinction used in consumer-goods MCQ.
- Recognise transportation/secondary/general packaging options as distractors (Paper 1 options).
- How label info (brand, ingredients, expiry) ties to primary/secondary discussion seen in question wording.

Kaise Poochha Jaata Hai:

MCQ asking 'Which level of packaging does X represent?' with picture/description; pick Primary/Secondary/Transport/General.

Repeat Pattern:

Same packaging-level identification question seen in Paper 1 and Paper 3 (visual/product description MCQ style).

Key Terms:

Primary packaging

Secondary packaging

Transportation packaging

15. Training: organisational benefits and steps taken (improving productivity, emergency managers)

Medium Conf.

Overall Exam Strategy

Bas Pass Hona Hai: focus on exact phrasing and sequences that repeat across papers — especially Demat/DP wording, packaging-level identification rules, control-process sequence (set/measure/compare/correct), divisional vs functional advantages, SEBI protective vs regulatory functions, marketing labelling and promotion tools, and planning single-use vs standing distinctions. Memorise verbatim lines used in MCQs and practice short 3-point answers for 3-mark questions and one structured 6-mark answer for each major topic.
