Detailed Study Notes

Read these notes carefully — they're based on actual patterns found in your past papers.

1. Contract: precise legal definition ('agreement enforceable at law')

High Conf.

High Priority

Appeared in: Paper 1 · Paper 3 · Paper 4 · 3× total

Question types: Short: 2 | Long: 2

Kya Padhna Hai:

- Memorise the exact phrase and its legal import: 'Contract is an agreement enforceable at law.'
- Essentials that make an agreement enforceable: offer, acceptance, consideration, capacity, free consent, lawful object, lawful consideration, formalities (if any).
- Be ready to contrast 'agreement' vs 'contract' and give examples when an agreement is not enforceable (agreements in restraint of trade, wagering agreements, agreements without consideration).
- Prepare a short template definition (for 3 marks) and an expanded answer listing essentials (for 10–15 marks).

Kaise Poochha Jaata Hai:

- Direct definitional question: 'Contract is an agreement enforceable at law. Discuss.' or 'Define Contract and Explain the essentials of a valid contract.'

Repeat Pattern:

- Recurring definitional question in very-short and long-answer slots across multiple papers.

Key Terms:

agreement

enforceable

offer

acceptance

consideration capacity

free consent

lawful object

2. Acceptance: definition, modes and revocation rules

High Conf.

High Priority

Appeared in: Paper 1 · Paper 3 · Paper 4 · 3× total

Question types: Short: 2 | Long: 1

Kya Padhna Hai:

- Definition question phrasing: 'What is acceptance? How can acceptance is made.'
- Modes of acceptance: express, implied, acceptance by conduct (as expected in answers)
- Revocation specifics: 'How can an acceptance be revoked? Is there any limit of time after which an acceptance cannot be revoked.'
- Timing effects: when acceptance becomes binding, postal rule basics (as often implicit in these questions)

Kaise Poochha Jaata Hai:

Seen as very-short definition and a long question on revocation/time limits — expect both short definitional and longer explanatory formats.

Repeat Pattern:

Acceptance definitions repeated (Papers 1,3) and detailed revocation question in Paper 4 — consistent testing of both definition and limits.

Key Terms:

acceptance

revocation

postal rule

express/implied acceptance

3. Void Contract: meaning and reasons for voidness

High Conf.

High Priority

Appeared in: Paper 1 · Paper 3 · Paper 2 · 3× total

Question types: Short: 3 | Long: 0

Kya Padhna Hai:

- Exact phrase used: 'What is meant by 'Void Contract'? Narrate the reasons of a void contract.'
- Grounds listed in papers: illegality, impossibility, want of essential elements, void by statute
- Distinguish void vs voidable contracts (often implied in answers)
- Concrete reasons/examples where contract is void (e.g., unlawful object, uncertain terms)

Kaise Poochha Jaata Hai:

Typically a very-short definitional question asking for reasons — short-answer format in multiple papers.

Repeat Pattern:

Same wording appears in Paper 1 and Paper 3 and similar idea in Paper 2 — consistent.

Key Terms:

void contract

illegality

impossibility

4. Quasi Contract: definition and salient features

High Conf.

High Priority

Appeared in: Paper 1 · Paper 3 · Paper 2 · 3× total

Question types: Short: 3 | Long: 0

Kya Padhna Hai:

- Wording seen: 'What is 'Quasi Contract'? Mention its salient features.'
- Salient features: obligation imposed by law, absence of agreement, restitution principles
- Examples of quasi-contracts (money paid by mistake, supply of necessities to incapable persons)
- Distinguish quasi-contract from actual contract (no consensus ad idem)

Kaise Poochha Jaata Hai:

Very-short definition + features in 3-mark questions; sometimes phrased as critical statement: 'Quasi contract is not a contract in law.' Explain.

Repeat Pattern:

Repeated in Papers 1, 2 and 3 with similar phrasing — strong repeat.

Key Terms:

quasi-contract

restitution

obligation imposed by law

salient features

5. Condition vs Warranty and implied conditions in sale of goods

High Conf.

High Priority

Appeared in: Paper 1 · Paper 3 · 3× total

Question types: Short: 0 | Long: 3

Kya Padhna Hai:

- Exact phrasing: 'Distinguish between 'condition' and 'warranty.' What are the implied conditions in a Contract of sale of goods?'
- Definitions and clear differences (effect of breach: right to reject vs claim damages)
- Implied conditions under SOGA: title, correspondence with sample, merchantable quality, fitness for purpose
- Illustrative examples of breach and remedies linked to condition/warranty distinction

Kaise Poochha Jaata Hai:

Long-answer comparison question; expect to list implied conditions and then contrast with warranties in detail.

Repeat Pattern:

Directly asked in Paper 1 and Paper 3 long-answer sections — very consistent.

Key Terms:

condition

warranty

merchantable quality

fitness for purpose

6. Caveat Emptor: principle and exceptions

High Conf.

High Priority

Appeared in: Paper 1 · Paper 3 · 3× total

Question types: Short: 3 | Long: 0

Kya Padhna Hai:

- Exact question: 'What do you understand by 'Caveat Emptor'? Explain the exceptions to this principle.'
- Define caveat emptor and legal basis under sale law
- Enumerate exceptions: latent defects, misrepresentation/fraud, sale by sample, warranty, duty to disclose
- Case/scenario style exceptions (buyer reliance on seller's skill, description by sample)

Kaise Poochha Jaata Hai:

Short-answer question asking definition plus list of exceptions; seen multiple times in very-short section.

Repeat Pattern:

Identical question appears in Paper 1 and Paper 3 — frequent repetition.

Key Terms:

caveat emptor

latent defects

misrepresentation

sale by sample

7. Promissory Note: definition and parties to a promissory note

High Conf.

High Priority

Appeared in: Paper 1 · Paper 3 · 3× total

Question types: Short: 3 | Long: 0

Kya Padhna Hai:

- Exact text: 'What is 'Promissory Note'? Describe parties to promissory note.'
- Definition under Negotiable Instruments Act, essential writing and promise
- Parties: maker, payee, endorsee (where applicable) — roles defined
- Distinguish promissory note from bills and cheques (cross-link to other topic)

Kaise Poochha Jaata Hai:

Short definition and list of parties; repeated as very-short questions.

Repeat Pattern:

Appears clearly in Paper 1 and Paper 3 — consistent.

Key Terms:

promissory note

maker

payee

negotiable instruments

8. Negotiable Instrument: definition and characteristics (including cheque, bill, promissory note)

High Conf.

High Priority

Appeared in: Paper 2 · Paper 4 · Paper 1 · 3× total

Question types: Short: 2 | Long: 2

Kya Padhna Hai:

- Wording: 'Define the term Negotiable Instrument. Explain the characteristics of a Negotiable Instrument.'
- List characteristics: transferability, negotiability, certainty of amount, endorsement requirement
- Specific negotiable instruments: cheque, bill of exchange, promissory note definitions and differences
- Rights of holder in due course (linked topic) and privileges under NI Act

Kaise Poochha Jaata Hai:

Seen as both short definition and longer explanatory questions; cheques vs bill questions also map here.

Repeat Pattern:

Negotiable instrument definitions/characteristics appear across Paper 2 and Paper 4 and related items in other papers — consistent theme.

Key Terms:

negotiable instrument

transferability

endorsement

holder in due course

9. Bailment: definition and essential elements of contract of bailment

High Conf.

High Priority

Appeared in: Paper 1 · Paper 4 · Paper 2 · 3× total

Question types: Short: 1 | Long: 3

Kya Padhna Hai:

- Wording: 'Define Bailment and discuss the essential elements of a contract of Bailment.'
- Elements: delivery of goods, possession without transfer of ownership, purpose, return obligation
- Rights and duties of bailor and bailee (implied in long essay answers)
- Examples: gratuitous bailment, bailment for reward, pledge as special bailment

Kaise Poochha Jaata Hai:

Appears as long-answer explanatory question expecting elements, rights & duties and examples.

Repeat Pattern:

Seen in Paper 1, Paper 4 and Paper 2 (via pledge comparison) — stable presence.

Key Terms:

bailment

delivery

possession

rights and duties

I. 10. Contingent Contract: definition and rules of enforcement

High Conf.

High Priority

Appeared in: Paper 1 · Paper 3 · Paper 4 · 3× total

Question types: Short: 1 | Long: 3

Kya Padhna Hai:

- Exact wording: 'What is 'Contingent Contract'? Explain the rules regarding Enforcement of Contingent Contracts.'
- Definition and conditions: contingent on event collateral to contract
- Rules: when contingent becomes enforceable, impossible contingencies, effect of subsequent impossibility
- Examples: contingent sale if X happens; enforceability when event occurs or fails

Kaise Poochha Jaata Hai:

Often a long-answer legal rules question; expect statement + rule explanation + examples.

Repeat Pattern:

Repeated across Papers 1, 3 and 4 — high consistency.

Key Terms:

contingent contract

enforcement rules

impossibility

event

II. Acceptance: modes of acceptance

High Conf.

High Priority

Appeared in: Paper 1 · Paper 3 · Paper 4 · 3× total

Question types: Short: 2 | Long: 1

Kya Padhna Hai:

- Learn definition of acceptance and list modes: express acceptance (oral/written), implied acceptance (by conduct), acceptance by performance, acceptance by postal rule, acceptance by electronic communication.
- Know legal effect and timing for each mode and exceptions (e.g., postal rule not apply to instantaneous communications).
- Be prepared to answer revocation/time-limit follow-ups (see related topic).

Kaise Poochha Jaata Hai:

Short definitional questions: 'What is acceptance? How can acceptance is made.' and longer questions on revocation/time limits.

Repeat Pattern:

Occurs in very-short and long questions across papers.

Key Terms:

acceptance

express implied

postal rule

revocation

12. Void Contract: reasons for voidness

High Conf.

High Priority

Appeared in: Paper 1 · Paper 3 · 3× total

Question types: Short: 3 | Long: 0

Kya Padhna Hai:

- Memorise common reasons a contract is void: unlawful object/consideration, agreements in restraint of trade/marriage/profession as prohibited, impossible contracts (void ab initio), uncertainty or vagueness, agreements rendered void by statute.
- Distinguish void from voidable and illegal contracts.
- Use short examples for each ground when writing answers.

Kaise Poochha Jaata Hai:

Very-short definitional question followed by listing reasons: 'What is meant by 'Void Contract'? Narrate the reasons of a void contract.'

Repeat Pattern:

Repeated in Paper 1 and Paper 3.

Key Terms:

void contract

illegality

impossibility

uncertainty

13. Quasi Contract: salient features

High Conf.

High Priority

Appeared in: Paper 1 · Paper 2 · Paper 3 · 3× total

Question types: Short: 3 | Long: 0

Kya Padhna Hai:

- Define quasi-contract (obligations imposed by law in absence of agreement) and list salient features: absence of consensus, obligation arises by operation of law, restitution/remedy in equity, limited to certain recognized situations under law.
- Typical illustrations: money paid by mistake, supply of necessities to incapable person, obligation to pay for non-gratuitous acts.
- Emphasise that it is not an actual contract but gives contractual remedies.

Kaise Poochha Jaata Hai:

Short-answer definition and features: 'What is 'Quasi Contract'? Mention its salient features.' or 'Quasi contract is not a contract in law. Explain.'

Repeat Pattern:

Asked repeatedly in multiple papers; prepare concise points with examples.

Key Terms:

quasi-contract

restitution

obligation by law

salient features

14. Caveat Emptor: exceptions

High Conf.

High Priority

Appeared in: Paper 1 · Paper 3 · 3× total

Question types: Short: 3 | Long: 0

Kya Padhna Hai:

- Define caveat emptor (buyer beware) and list exceptions: fraudulent misrepresentation, sale by sample, sale by description, implied warranty of fitness/merchantable quality, latent defects, where seller stands in fiduciary relation.
- Be ready with short examples for each exception and legal reasoning.
- Note overlap with implied conditions/warranties under Sale of Goods Act.

Kaise Poochha Jaata Hai:

Short answer: 'What do you understand by 'Caveat Emptor'? Explain the exceptions to this principle.'

Repeat Pattern:

Frequently appears as an identical question across papers.

Key Terms:

caveat emptor

latent defects

misrepresentation

sale by sample

implied warranty

15. Promissory Note: parties

High Conf.

High Priority

Appeared in: Paper 1 · Paper 3 · 3× total

Question types: Short: 3 | Long: 0

Kya Padhna Hai:
